SECTION 28. Section 4765.10 of the Revised Code is presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended by both Am. Sub. S.B. 150 and Am. Sub. S.B. 162 of the 121st General Assembly, with the new language of neither of the acts shown in capital letters. This is in recognition of the principle stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that such amendments are to be harmonized where not substantively irreconcilable and constitutes a legislative finding that such is the resulting version in effect prior to the effective date of this act.

SECTION 29. Until January 1, 1998, the State Fire Marshal shall not do either of the following:

(A) Issue a license as a manufacturer of fireworks under sections 3743.02 and 3743.03 of the Revised Code to a person for a particular fireworks plant unless that person possessed such a license for that fireworks plant immediately prior to January 1, 1997;

(B) Issue a license as a wholesaler of fireworks under sections 3743.15 and 3743.16 of the Revised Code to a person for a particular location unless that person possessed such a license for that location immediately prior to January 1, 1997.

SECTION 30. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Qualified municipal corporation" means a municipal corporation the legislative authority of which failed to timely certify resolutions proposing the questions of two qualifying property tax levies to the board of elections for appearance on the November 5, 1996, election ballot.

(2) "Qualifying property tax levies" means property tax levies that a qualifying municipal corporation currently is authorized to levy; that expire at the end of 1996; and one of which is for the purpose of the general fund and raises at least $120,000 in revenue, which constitutes at least five per cent of total general fund revenue, and the other of which is for the purpose of a fund used to construct or maintain roads and raises at least $70,000, which constitutes at least 40 per cent of that fund.

(B) A qualifying municipal corporation may adopt resolutions proposing to place the questions of renewing qualifying property tax levies on the ballot at a special election to be held in the municipal corporation on December 10, 1996, and certify those resolutions to the proper county board of elections not later than ten days after the effective date of this section, notwithstanding the requirement under section 5705.25 of the Revised Code to certify such resolutions not later than seventy-five days prior to an election.

The county board of elections shall perform all acts otherwise required by section 5705.25 and Title XXXV of the Revised Code to place
